MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The Review of International Affairs publishes the following types of articles:

Original research article presents the results of research with clear contribution with a view of expanding and/or deepening of existing knowledge. It should be structured to include the following elements: general context and aim of research; theoretical background (review literature) clearly stated in the introduction; departing hypothesis or research question; applied methods; presentation and explanation of the results; conclusion discussing the main research findings, departing hypothesis or research question.

Review article provides a comprehensive summary of research on a certain topic or a perspective on the state of the field by describing current areas of agreement as well as controversies and debates. Review article identifies gaps in knowledge and the most important but still unanswered research questions and suggest directions for future research.

Book review is a systematic description and/or critical analysis of the quality and significance of a book, edited volume, and textbook. Book review should include a general description of the topic and/or problem addressed by the work in question, summary of the book’s main argument, basic biographical information about the author, summary of contents, strengths and weaknesses, as well as a concluding statement summarizing reviewer’s opinion of the book.

In preparing manuscripts authors are kindly requested to comply with the following rules:

FORMAT
All types of manuscripts should be submitted in Word and saved in .doc or .docx format.
Use Times New Roman font in size 12, with single-lined spacing, and with an empty line between paragraphs.
Use continuous line numbers starting on the first page, with page numbers on the right side of the bottom of the page.

LENGTH
Articles range from 6000–8000 words (excluding abstracts and bibliography).
The length of book review essays is up to 1500 words.

NAME AND AFFILIATION
Divide the article in two separate files:
1. File "Cover page", which contains:
   a. Article title;
   b. Authorship data (in accordance with the below-mentioned):
Below the title, insert your full name with a corresponding footnote in which you state your research title, the complete name of your employing institution, its seat, your e-mail and ORCID ID. Capitalize your last name.
Author’s affiliation is the affiliation where the research was conducted.

In case of two co-authors, the names should be written next to one another, with each containing the affiliation footnote. Although manuscripts co-authored by more than two researchers are untypical, they may be considered in rare occasions, depending on the scale of the research, its topic, main elements, structure and the extent of correspondence with the Editorial Policy.

In the footnote, the author also provides all details regarding the project under which the research presented in her/his article is conducted and/or sources of financial and other support. The author also may point to readers that some of the views presented in the article express her/his own opinion and not the one of the institution she/he works for.

2. File “Main text”, which contains:
   a. Article title

   TITLE

   Use bold for the article title (size 14).

   The title should not only accurately describe the content of manuscript (i.e. convey the main topics of the study and highlight the importance of the research) but it should be concise.

   b. Text, that is formatted in the following way:

   ABSTRACT AND KEY WORDS

   Below the title include abstract of 150–200 words that describes the material presented in the manuscript.

   For original research article, the abstract must summarise the entire article, including theoretical background, the departing hypothesis or research question, the aim, a concise account of the methods, a clear description of the most important findings, and a brief presentation of the conclusions.

   For review article, the abstract should include the primary objective of the review, the reasoning behind choice, the main outcomes and results of the review, and the conclusions that might be drawn, including their implications for further research, application, or practice.

   The author provides up to 10 key words for the main idea of the article which can be used for indexing purposes. Key words should not repeat the title.

   Authors that speak BHS language should submit, as well, their abstracts in the Serbian language at the end of the reference list. For authors from other countries, the editorial team will prepare a translation of the abstract.

   MAIN TEXT

   The basic text should be justified.

   Use no more than three levels of headings (all should be centred):

   - First-level headings – Heading
   - Second-level headings – Heading
   - Third-level headings – Heading

   Do not number headings.
Define all abbreviations at first mention in the abstract and in the main text by giving the full term, then the abbreviation in parentheses, and use them consistently thereafter.

Only the following form of quotation marks should be put in the text: " " . In case the additional quotation marks are to be put within these ones it should be done in the following way: ‘ ’.

The text should be clear, readable, and concise. Manuscripts should be well presented, with correct grammar, spelling and punctuation. If the English is unsatisfactory, we will return the manuscript for correction without review.

Please use British (-ise) spelling style consistently throughout your manuscript.

Latin, Old Greek and other non-English words and terms in the text should be italicised (e.g. status quo, a priori, de facto, acquis communautaire).

CITATION STYLE

The Review of International Affairs uses the author-date reference style based on The Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed). Sources are cited in the text, usually in parentheses, by the author’s surname, the publication date of the work cited, and a page number if necessary. Full details are given in the reference list (use the heading References).

In the text, the reference should be placed just before punctuation. If the author’s name appears in the text, it is not necessary to repeat it, but the date should follow immediately:

Johnson and Axinn (2013, 136) argue that killing with emotions is morally superior to killing without emotions, because military honour demands a clear will to assume a risk of sacrifice of health and life.

If the reference is in parentheses, use square brackets for additional parentheses:

(see, e.g., Johnson and Axinn [2013, 133–136] on this important subject).

In text, separate the references with semicolons:

(Jabri 2007; Herman 2004; Rohrbach 2020)

If citing more than one work by an author, do not repeat the name:

(Jabri 2007, 2011; Gregory 2014a, 2014b)

Personal communication (letter, emails, telephone conversation)

Personal communications include conversations, interviews, lecture material, telephone conversations, letters and e-mail messages. Place references to personal communications such as letters and conversations within the running text and not as formal end references, because they do not contain recoverable data:

... as mentioned in an e-mail to me from Dr Slobodan Jankovic, December 10, 2019 ...

When in published collections, letters are cited by date of the collection, with individual correspondence dates given in the text:

In a letter to Mary Louise Green from University of Belgrade, May 13, 2017 (Green 2012, 34), ...

Secondary source

If you read an article or book which cites or quotes some information that you want to use, always refer to both the original source and the source where you found the information:

In-text citation:

In his 1975 book Power [Macht], Luhmann bases his understanding of power mainly on the social exchange and community power literature (cited in Guzzini 2013, 79).

Reference list entry:

TABLES, FIGURES AND GEOGRAPHICAL MAPS

It is necessary to give their number and full title – e.g. Table 1: Human Development Index among EU members or Figure 2: State-Building or Sovereignty Strategy or Map 1: Maritime jurisdiction and boundaries in the Arctic region.

It is particularly important that you have been given written permission to use any tables, figures, and geographical maps you are reproducing from another source before you submit manuscript.

REFERENCE LIST

The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text, tables, figure legend, and footnotes, and that have been published or accepted for publication.

Personal communications and unpublished works should only be mentioned in the text. Do not use footnotes or endnotes as a substitute for a reference list.

Reference list entries should be alphabetised by the last name of author or editor. If no author/editor, order by title.

If the reference list contains two or more items by the same author in the same year, add a, b, etc. and list them alphabetically by title of the work:

Manuscripts that do not comply with the above-mentioned guidelines will not be taken into consideration for reviewing process.
